Instructions for completing Power Of Attorney Form

1. The grantor of the Power of Attorney is either an individual, a sole proprietorship (which is an individual operating under a business name rather than their own name), a partnership, a corporation or a limited liability corporation (a special form of corporation). The grantor needs to check which box accurately states how they are doing business.
2. Enter the employer identification number provided to the grantor by the IRS or, if they do not have one, the grantor's social security number. Corporations, LLC's and partnerships must have an EIN. Individuals will only have a SSN. A sole proprietorship can have either one.
3. Enter the name of the grantor. If it is a corporation or LLC, this will be the company's legal name. If it is a partnership, it will be the name that the partnership does business under. If it is an individual or a sole proprietorship, it will be the name of the individual.
4. Enter the same description as is checked in the box at the top of the power of attorney (item #1).
5. Individuals leave this blank. Sole proprietorships and Partnerships need to enter the name under which they are doing business. Corporations can leave this blank if they are doing business under the name entered in item#3. However, if they are doing business under a different name than that, they must enter that name here.
6. Enter the state of residence for an individual or sole proprietorship. For a partnership, enter the state where their partnership papers are filed. For a corporation or LLC, enter the state in which they are incorporated (do not assume that this is the state where their principal place of business is located).
7. Enter the full street, city and state address where the grantor has their main business office.
8. Enter the same name as is entered in item#3.
9. Signature of the person authorized to sign a power of attorney on behalf of the grantor. If an individual or sole proprietorship, it is the individual. If a partnership, it is any general partner (note that some partnerships have only general partners while some have both general and limited partners; only general partners can sign for the latter). If it is a corporation, it must be an executive officer (President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, CEO, COO, CFO). If it is an LLC, it must be an executive officer or a Limited Liability "Member" (which is the legal name for an owner of an LLC).
10. Enter the title of the person signing in item#9. For an individual, it is "individual". For a sole proprietorship, it is "proprietor" or "principal". For a partnership, it is "General Partner". For a corporation, it is the applicable officer title (President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, CEO, COO, CFO). For an LLC it is the applicable officer title or "member".
11. Enter the date the form is signed.
12. A signature of a witness to the signature entered in item#9 is required for a corporation or LLC. This needs to be another executive officer and is most typically the Secretary of the corporation.
